A Champion as a friend for one thousand children from Varese

Pubblicato: Venerdì 15 Aprile 2011

It was a beautiful morning, yesterday, at the Estensi Gardens: 1000 children and teens learnt to love sport by playing with volleyball champion Andrea Lucchetta, tennis star Adriano Panatta, the Olympic gymnast Jury Chechi and the legendary Ciccio Graziani, member of that National Team who won the World Cup in 1982.

The name of this meeting, organised by the municipality, the Ministry of Education and Banca Generali, was "a champion as a friend."

A day which is possible to see in our photo gallery and in the video produced for the occasion.

Were you there too? Tell us your feelings in the comments!
