

Van De Sfroos in concert

Pubblicato: Mercoledì 10 Aprile 2013

Davide Van de Sfroos' "Teritoritur" has already started and it is going to stop in the major theatres in the north and centre of Italy, also in Saronno, Varese and Gallarate. During the three events in the province, the singer is going to entertain the public for two hours, creating a show in which the protagonists will be the territory and the people of the places where the concerts take place. "We want to contaminate and be contaminated by people who will come to our concerts", Davide explains. Every stage of the tour becomes a journey told by many voices, where the sources describing the territory intertwine through videos, photos and written texts in a wise alternation of characters and landscapes, images and statements collecting the different shadings and emotions (joy, struggle, entertainment, but also work, fears and slice of lives) of each one of the visited places.

THE CONCERTS

11th April – Saronno (Teatro Giuditta Pasta); 20th April – Varese (Teatro di Varese); 3rd May – Gallarate (Teatro Condominio). Some tickets for all dates are still available. All concerts are at 9 p.m. From Wednesday 6th February, pre-sales are opening in theatre box offices and ticket offices.

On the stage, Davide is playing with his ultra-tested band: Angapiemage Galiano Persico (violin), Davide "Billa" Brambilla (accordion, pianos, trumpet and choirs), Paolo Legramandi (bass and acoustic bass guitars), Marcello Schena (drums), Maurizio Glielmo “Gnola” (guitar) and together with a new female voice contribution.

Redazione VareseNews
redazione@varesenews.it