Red Cross: “We request immediate release”

Pubblicato: Giovedì 7 Agosto 2014

“We’re close to Vanessa Marzullo and Greta Ramelli’s families, Italian aid-workers kidnapped in Sirya while nearby Aleppo, who we haven’t received news from for days. Another example of humanitarian relief workers struck during the practice of their activities, a horror we strongly condemn, in Sirya and everywhere else. That’s why we ask immediate and unconditioned release of the two”.

These are the words of Francesco Rocca, National president of the Italian Red Cross and vice-president of the international federation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent.
