

Concluded the Suspiria filming at the Grand Hotel

Pubblicato: Venerdì 13 Gennaio 2017

The filming at the Grand Hotel Campo dei Fiori has ended. The set director Luca Guadagnino is ready to emigrate elsewhere to continue working on the movie “Suspiria“, meanwhile, passing in front of the old hotel, you can still find signs of these four months of work.

On the hotel’s windows and doors, there has reproduced snow with cotton and spray. Around, you can find signs written in German and posters. Above the entrance of the building you can find the writing Tanz. The book from which the film is loosely based on in fact, is set in Berlin in the ’70s.

The hotel’s doors remain closed, also for security reasons and it is not possible to know details about the filming. By the first weeks of January, the production should shift completely.

di Adelia Brigo Translated by Prof. Robert Clarke